+Call to Worship (from Psalm 77)

Kyle Damron

Make a joyful noise to God, all the earth!

We sing the glory of your name.

How awesome are your deeds, O Lord!

Come and see what God has done:

You have turned the sea into dry land.

You are mighty and powerful.

Like a mother with her child, you comfort us.

You are nurturing and kind.

We sing your glory and give you praise.

Make a joyful noise to God, all the earth!

+Hymn 25

Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven

Within These Walls
Pepper Choplin

Sanctuary Choir

Within these walls, we assemble. Within these walls, we gather in your name.

As we join our hearts in a holy union, we come to find communion in your holiness again. Within these walls, let there be harmony; a common bond; a Spirit from above.

And as your children let us love each other as sisters and as brothers united by your love. We are the branches, You are the vine. We are the vessels and You are the wine. We are the body, You are the Head. For every hunger, You are the Bread. Within these walls, let there be refuge, a place of rest when doubts and trials form.

And let us lift each other as we gather to find your peace no matter how terrible the storm. Within these walls give us your vision. Within these walls, let us understand that beyond these walls, there are hurting people who have never felt your healing hand. Beyond these walls, send us forward. Beyond these walls, let your will be done. We are your people; You will leave us never and we shall work together until your kingdom comes. Within these walls, let us pray.

Triune God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

This refrain comes from a Latin hymn associated with the washing of feet on Maundy Thursday. Whether in English or Latin, it is most effective when sung unaccompanied and in parts. In many ways it is a miniature equivalent of "Will You Let Me Be Your Servant" (see no. 727).

Invitation to the Table Taylor Mason

Words of Institution Donna Watts

The Table

KBC welcomes all Christians to participate in the celebration of the Lord's Supper. We walk to the table to emphasize that we are on a common journey— a journey where we are encouraged and strengthened by the love we find in Christ and the support we find in our community of faith. If you are not able to go to the table, you may receive the elements from a deacon in the aisle. Please hold the elements so that all may partake together.

The Bread and the Cup

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Benediction Donna Watts

Recessional Voluntary in D Julia Matthews
Charles Avison

Our deacons will be collecting a benevolence offering as you exit the sanctuary.

The offering is received each time we observe communion and is used to help individuals in crisis in our community.

Whether you are worshipping with us online or in-person, welcome! We are happy you are here. If you are interested in becoming a member of Kirkwood Baptist Church, or if you have questions about the church, we encourage you to go to www.kirkwoodbaptist.org where you might find answers to your questions. Additionally, please feel free to email any of the pastoral staff as we would love the opportunity to tell you more about this community.

*A nursery is available for Birth—Pre-K children. See an usher or minister for details.

Hearing devices are available from an usher at your request.

Sabbatical Prayer and Information

Prayer: As the Vandagriff family returns from France, we pray they will each find ways to remember the journey. May they find words or art or items that will serve as touchstones to carry them back to moments of surprise and joy, moments that may have been captured out of the corner of the eye. Amen.

On Call: The ministers have an on call rotation that begins each Friday. If you have an emergency and need to reach a minister Friday-Sunday, you will call the church office number: 314.965.2349, extension 121. For non-emergencies, please call the office during office hours. July 1-7 Kyle Damron; July 8-14 Tyler Mason; July 15-21 Donna Watts
